Voter Awareness Camp 14th Nov 24

PCMC coordinators during voter awareness Program

PCMC Conducts Voter Awareness Camp for ICCS Students

On 14th November 2024, a Voter Awareness Camp was conducted by the Pimpri Chinchwad Municipal Corporation (PCMC) for the students of ICCS. The camp aimed to raise awareness about the importance of voting and the democratic process.

A team of nearly 10 PCMC coordinators visited the college to interact with the students. As part of the program, the coordinators presented a street play highlighting the significance of voter awareness, which effectively conveyed the message to the students.

Additionally, all participating students took a pledge to vote, emphasizing their responsibility as active citizens in the democratic system. Total 262 students attended.

The event was a great success in promoting civic engagement among the students of ICCS.

Voter's Pledge 19 Nov 24

On 19th Nov 2024, 134 students at ICCS proudly took the Voter's Pledge, committing to responsible citizenship and active participation in our democracy! A heartfelt thank you to all the participants for reaffirming your vital role in shaping our nation's future.

Every single vote matters, and it's crucial to remember that elections can be decided by just one vote.

Let's continue to inspire others to join this movement and make their voices heard!
